Corporations—Agricultural Corporations—Agricultural Corporations; Limitations; Exceptions. Representative Don Rezac, 61st District, Emmett; Representative Bob Mead, 112th District, Pawnee Rock; Senator Janis Lee, 36th District, Kensington, November 25, 1992.

The agricultural corporations act restricts corporations from directly or indirectly owning, acquiring or otherwise obtaining or leasing agricultural land, subject to 14 enumerated exceptions. In our opinion, The Nature Conservancy, a duly registered foreign nonprofit corporation, is engaged in business of a nonfarming nature in Kansas. Accordingly, agricultural land in Cheyenne Bottoms which is owned by The Nature Conservancy falls within the statutory exception which allows a corporation to acquire such acreage as is necessary for the operation of a nonfarming business. The Nature Conservancy may own such agricultural land as is useful, convenient, suitable and needful for the accomplishment of its legitimate corporate purposes. Specific Information on Alleged Sexual Offense. Nola Foulston, Sedgwick County District Attorney, Wichita, November 30, 1992.

The Wichita Police Department is a public agency, the records of which are subject to the provisions of the Kansas open records act (KORA), K.S.A. 45-215 et seq. Incidents reported to Kansas law enforcement agencies should be contained on forms which comply with approval procedures set forth at K.S.A. 21-2501a. The first page of such standard offense reports contains information which generally is not closed pursuant to K.S.A. 1991 Supp. 45-221(a)(10)(A)-(E). However, the alleged crime reported in the case at hand concerns sexual matters and the personal privacy exception to the KORA, set forth at K.S.A. 1991 Supp. 45-221(a)(30) and the Kansas constitutional amendment guaranteeing basic rights to crime victims as set forth in the Victims' Bill of Rights permit, but do not require, the Wichita Police Department to decline access to the victim's name, address and telephone number, until such time as the matter may be made public or brought to trial. Corporations—Cooperative Societies—Bylaws and Regulations.

Insurance—General Provisions—Premiums; Amounts Charged in Accordance with Act; Certain Rebates or Other Inducements Prohibited. Ron Todd, Commissioner of Insurance, Kansas Department of Insurance, Topeka, December 3, 1992.

The statutes prohibiting rebates, found at K.S.A. 40-941 (fire insurance) and 40-1122 (casualty insurance), are intended to protect against unfair discrimination. An insurance cooperative's distribution of patronage dividends based upon the purchase of insurance results in unfair discrimination, and unless the cooperative members are considered a class for purposes of rate regulation, violates the prohibition against rebates.

Additionally, the distribution of patronage dividends (that derive solely from commissions received from the sale of insurance) to cooperative members that are not licensed as insurance agents violates K.S.A. 40-241g. Consumer Credit Commissioner

Administrative Interpretation No. 1001

Call or Demand Notes

A request has been made to the Consumer Credit Commissioner for an administrative interpretation concerning the inclusion of a demand feature in a nonreal estate consumer installment loan agreement.

A demand or call provision is an acceleration clause, which allows a lender to call monies due under the instrument at the will of the creditor.

The Kansas Uniform Consumer Credit Code section 16a-5-109 permits creditors to accelerate an agreement if:

(1) the consumer fails to make a payment as required by the agreement; or

(2) the prospect of payment, performance, or realization of collateral is significantly impaired, the burden of establishing the prospect of significant impairment is on the creditor.

Notwithstanding subsection (1), a creditor may not accelerate an agreement only for failure to make a required payment unless the consumer has been given the notice of right to cure as provided by 16a-5-110 and 16a-5-111.

The calling or demanding of payment in full following 24 months of a 48-month contract, for example, would trigger the consumer's right to finance the balloon payment at the same rate and terms as the original installment note (16a-3-308).

Demand notes will be allowed only when the agreements are "interest only" in which the consumer is required only to pay interest and not pay principal. Demand provisions in these types of transactions is entirely understandable, given the need of the creditor eventually to recover its principal.

State Fire Marshal

Notice of Hearing on Proposed Administrative Regulations

A public hearing will be conducted at 10 a.m. Friday, January 22, in the conference room of the State Fire Marshal's office, Suite 600, Jayhawk Tower, 700 S.W. Jackson, Topeka, to consider the adoption of proposed changes in the existing rules and regulations of the Kansas State Fire Marshal.

The 30-day notice of the public hearing shall constitute a public comment period for the purpose of receiving written public comments on the proposed rules and regulations. All interested parties can obtain a complete written copy of the proposed regulations and the economic impact statement at the address below. All interested parties may submit written comments prior to the hearing to the State Fire Marshal, 700 S.W. Jackson, Suite 600, Topeka 66603-3714. All interested parties will be given a reasonable opportunity to present their views orally on the adoption of the proposed regulations during the hearing.

These regulations are proposed for adoption on a permanent basis. A summary of the proposed regulations and their economic impact follows.

K.A.R. 22-1-2. Compliance with certain building codes.

These changes are updates to currently adopted national building codes allowed to be adopted by cities. The major changes are designed to reflect ADA standards. This is not federally mandated. There would be minimal fiscal impact. No other methods were considered.

K.A.R. 22-1-3. Adopted national codes.

- 1. K.A.R. 22-1-3(d), (e), (u) and (y) are currently adopted, changing only placement with the regulations.
- 2. K.A.R. 22-1-3(a), (g), (h), (j), (o), (r), (v), (w) and (x) are updates to more current editions of the National Fire Prevention Association pamphlets adopted by reference. The changes in these editions are minimal. Some of these changes are designed to reflect current OSHA, EPA and ADA standards. There would be no fiscal impact due to these specific changes in currently adopted standards.
- 3. K.A.R. 22-1-3(b), (c), (f), (i), (k), (l), (m), (n), (p), (q), (s) and (t) are newly adopted national standards. They have historically been used for reference when questions regarding the specific areas have arisen. There is no economic impact on the agency or other governmental agencies. There is some economic impact on consumers due to the codifying of the standards. This impact should be minimal since these standards represent the minimum services that reputable companies should be providing.

K.A.R. 22-1-4. Variances and exemptions.

This regulation allows the fire marshal to waive provisions of the fire prevention code. There would be no economic impact.

K.A.R. 22-1-5. Denial, refusal, suspension or revocation.

This regulation combines all the current regulations concerning denial, refusal, suspension or revocation of licenses authorized throughout the fire prevention code into one regulation. The changes include language from the arson certification regulation concerning grounds for revocation, including conviction of a felony. The other change is the appeal time to conform the time frame of the regulation to the governing statute. There will be no economic impact.

K.A.R. 22-1-6. Commercial fire suppression and detection firms, filing.

This regulation requires any business which installs, maintains or repairs fire protection systems to file with the fire marshal. This regulation is not mandated by federal law. There will be minimal costs to the agency in processing these filings and to the companies involved. No other less costly or less intrusive method was considered.

K.A.R. 22-2-1, 22-3-1, 22-3-2, 22-4-1, 22-6-10, 22-6-17, 22-7-1, 22-7-5, 22-8-1, 22-10-12, 22-10-13, 22-10-14, 22-10-17, 22-13-35 and 22-20-1 are being revoked and moved to K.A.R. 22-1-3. There is no economic impact as a result of these revocations.

K.A.R. 22-5-3. Reporting of fire losses by insurance companies.

This is an amendment to the regulation requiring insurance companies to report fire losses. Since 1981, the annual report has been required on "forms provided by the state fire marshal." The fire marshal has never provided the forms. The amendment is clean-up language, taking out the form requirement, to conform the regulation to current practices. There will be no economic impact.

K.A.R. 22-7-2 and 22-7-3.

These regulations are being revoked. They are covered in the adopted national pamphlets. There is no economic impact from these revocations.

K.A.R. 22-7-6. Flammable and combustible liquids; applications and checklists.

This regulation requires the State Fire Marshal to provide standards used for inspections, applications and plans review for flammable and combustible liquids. This is not mandated by federal law. There is some economic impact on the agency in having to provide forms; however, the amount is indeterminable. There was no other method considered.

K.A.R. 22-7-7. Approval of plans.

This regulation requires approval of the State Fire Marshal for construction or modification of flammable liquid storage and handling facilities. This regulation is done in conjunction with the requirements of the Kansas Department of Health and Environment. This is not mandated by federal law. There is some cost to the agency in reviewing plans. This is currently being done, so the increase would be minimal. There is some cost to the regulated community; however, the majority are currently providing this. Additionally, the cost is less to catch and solve problems in the planning stages than to correct problems after construction. No other method was considered.

K.A.R. 22-7-8. Retroactivity.

This regulation establishes minimum standards and deadlines for those standards for above-ground flammable liquid storage facilities. This was created in conjunction with an industry group. It is not required by federal law. There could be some cost to the regulated community to bring facilities into compliance. There is no clear amount available to determine how many facilities must be changed, but the cost is estimated between $50 to $1,000 per facility. No other method was considered.

K.A.R. 22-7-9. Flammable and combustible liquid transfer responsibility.

This regulation codifies responsibility to prevent overfilling tanks. It is not required by federal law. There is no economic impact.

K.A.R. 22-7-10. Emergency response training.

This regulation requires minimal training to ensure employees at service stations know how to react in an emergency such as knowing where emergency shutoff switches are and what to do. There is no economic impact.

K.A.R. 22-7-11. Connection of above-ground tanks to dispenser for refueling vehicles.

This regulation allows above-ground tanks at service stations. There is no economic impact.

K.A.R. 22-7-12. Above ground abandonment of underground tanks.

This regulation requires that local fire departments be notified of tanks abandoned above ground. This is not mandated by any federal law. There is minimal cost on the regulated community until they must be disassembled. That amount is indeterminable. No other methods were considered.

K.A.R. 22-10-3. Registration certificate.

This regulation issues registration certification for fire extinguisher and fixed extinguishing system service, recharge, installation and inspection. The amendment eliminates one class of certification. It is not mandated by federal law or program. There is minimal economic impact on the agency—small amounts of revenue will be lost, but less paper work will be required. There is some impact on the regulated community, per L. 1992, ch. 221, which raises fees to more accurately reflect costs. No other entity has any economic impact. No other method was considered.

K.A.R. 22-10-3a.

This regulation is being revoked. There is no economic impact.

K.A.R. 22-10-10 and 22-19-4 are being revoked and consolidated into K.A.R. 22-1-5. There is no economic impact from these revocations.

K.A.R. 22-10-18. Minimum performance standards for holders of Class RA registration certificates.

This regulation sets specific standards for companies servicing and installing fixed extinguishing hood systems. This requires certain information to be provided to the consumer and kept in the company's files. This is not mandated by federal law. There would be minimal costs to the regulated community. No other method was considered.

K.A.R. 22-10-19. Minimum performance standards for holders of Class RB and RC registration certificates.

This regulation sets standards for companies which service portable fire extinguishers. It sets standards as to the minimal information required to be provided to the consumer and kept by the company when service is performed. This is not mandated by federal law. There would be minimal costs to the regulated community. No other method was considered.

K.A.R. 22-18-3. School buildings, construction requirement.

This regulation is being updated to currently adopted standards. It is not federally mandated. There would be minimal economic impact. No other methods were considered.

K.A.R. 22-19-1. Applicability.

This regulation clarifies the jurisdictional powers of certified arson investigators. There is no economic impact. No other methods were considered.

K.A.R. 22-19-2. Requirements.

This regulation sets forth the requirements for the fire marshal to certify arson investigators pursuant to K.S.A. 31-157. The amendments increase the hours necessary for certification. This is not mandated by federal law. There may be very slight economic impact to local units of government who send people through the certification process; however, the amendments bring the requirements in line with the International Association of Arson Investigators courses, which provide the vast majority of hours for certification in the state. The amendments to law enforcement hours also bring the requirements more in line with the part-time law enforcement certification from the KLETC. There was no other method considered.

K.A.R. 22-19-3. Renewal of certification.

This regulation sets forth the requirement for recertification of arson investigators. The amendments increase from 30 to 40 hours of continuing education required every two years. Additionally, the changes specify a minimum of continuing education hours in fire investigation and a minimum in law enforcement. This is not mandated by federal law. There could be minimal economic impact on those units which have certified arson investigators. No other method was considered.

K.A.R. 22-19-5. Reports, filing with state fire marshal.

This regulation implements K.S.A. 31-137, which requires reports of investigation of fires to be filed with the fire marshal. This will be used to develop a statewide computerized database for the crime of arson. It is not mandated by any federal law. There could be an economic impact on the agency due to an increased amount of data entry. That is indeterminable at this point. There could be a slight economic impact on local agencies employing certified arson investigators. That impact is indeterminable and should be slight due to the fact that the information requested should already be collected in every investigation. No other method was considered.

K.A.R. 22-22-1. Inspection of fire department vehicles.

This regulation requires that fire departments inspect all their vehicles at least annually and after any accident to ensure mechanical integrity. It is not mandated by federal law; however, there was indication from the National Transportation Safety Board that if states did not react, it would. There could be some impact on some departments, but that is indeterminable because most departments have ongoing maintenance programs in place which meet the standards. There would be a slight economic impact on the agency as the repository of the paperwork. No other method was considered.

Article 4.—INDIVIDUAL GAME RULES

RULES FOR INSTANT GAME NO. 50 "TWICE AS NICE"

11-4-454. Name of Game. The Kansas Lottery shall conduct an instant winner lottery game entitled "Twice as Nice" commencing on December 16, 1992. The specific rules for the "Twice as Nice" game are contained in K.A.R. 111-3-1 et seq. and 111-4-454 through 111-4-457. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 1991 Supp. 74-8710; effective, T-111-12-4-92, Nov. 20, 1992.)

111-4-455. Definitions. The following definitions shall apply to the "Twice as Nice" instant lottery game:

- (a) "Game symbols" are the numbers, letters, symbols, or pictures printed in the play area of each instant game ticket and which determine if the ticket bearer is entitled to a prize. In this instant game, the game symbols are printed in black ink in 15 pt. Archer. A game symbol appears in each of eight play spots within each play area. Each game symbol for this instant game is one of the following: $1.00 $5.00 10.00 50 $2500 $5000.
- (b) "Game symbol captions" are the words or portions of words, letters or numbers printed beneath each game symbol in the play area and are used to repeat or explain the game symbol. The game symbol caption associated with each game symbol is as follows:

Game Symbo	1		. ,	Game	Symbol	Caption
$1.00	, ,	*-	. ,		ONE$	•
$5.00	1 1	Ĺ:.	ž.		FIVE$
10.00					TEN
50.00		4, 1			FIFTY
$2500				1	25-HUN	J .
$5000					FIVTHO

- (c) "Ticket validation number" means a unique number appearing on each ticket which is used to validate winning tickets. For this instant game, the ticket validation number is a 10-digit number which appears under the "Void If Removed" spot on the front of each instant ticket.
- (d) "Book-ticket number" means the unique number appearing on each ticket which includes the number of the book from which it was removed and the serially assigned number of the ticket within that book. For this instant game, the book-ticket number is an 8-digit book number followed by a dash and then a 3-digit ticket number. The ticket numbers in each book start with 000 and end with 299. The book-ticket number is printed in black ink on the front of each instant game ticket.
- (e) "Retailer validation code" means the small letters found under removable covering in the play area of each instant game ticket. The retailer uses this code to verify and validate winners which are to be paid by the retailer. In this instant game, the retailer validation code is a two letter code printed and appearing in two of six varying locations among the game symbols in each play area. The codes and their meanings are as follows: CC = $1.00; DD = $2.00; KK = $5.00; BB = $10.00; and NN = $20.00. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 1991 Supp. 74-8710; effective, T-111-12-4-92, Nov. 20, 1992.)

111-4-456. Determination of Instant Prize Winners. An instant prize winner is determined for this instant game when the player removes or "scratches off" the removable layer of material covering the play area to reveal the eight game symbols and captions. This is a match three of eight game with a doubler feature. If three of the eight concealed prize amounts match, the player wins the amount shown in the play area. If the player matches four like amounts, the player wins double the prize amount. Each ticket will be eligible to win one prize. No ticket will be eligible to win more than one prize. Prizes a player may win are as follows:

Get	Win
3 - $ 1.00	One dollar
4 - $ 1.00	. Two dollars

4 - $ 5.00	Ten dollars

(Authorized by K.S.A. 1991 Supp. 74-8710(b), (c) & (i); implementing K.S.A. 1991 Supp. 74-8710(b), (c) & (i) and 74-8720 (b) & (d); effective, T-111-12-4-92, Nov. 20, 1992.)
